

Mora Mora - immer mit der Ruhe!

October 2012 - Introduction

Madagascar is the land of "mora mora," meaning that everyone takes life slow. This national attitude can prove quite challenging because it means that, invariably, plans that you think you've made don't quite materialise, promises and bookings made turn out to be "definitely maybes" and time is often wasted waiting for things to happen. So it might come as no surprise that even during the planning stages, things didn't exactly go to term, plan
